

4'5 ✓

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional. 1

- Many countries will be in danger, if the sea level continues to rise. (be, continue)
- If we use even more renewable energy, we'll help the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps melt, sea levels will rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it rains more, rivers and lakes will disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional. 1

- If I were / was you, I won't / wouldn't waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will / would there be / was less pollution?
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I will / would donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs: 0'25

- People wouldn't get so ill if they had (have) clean water.
- If we protect (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems will grow (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there would be (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional. 0'875

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| i. If he hadn't used all that electricity,  | IIa) if he had knew (know) there was meat in it.      |
| ii. He wouldn't have ordered that dish      | Ib) he would have had (have) fewer problems now.      |
| iii. If she had heard the weather forecast, | IVc) if she had understood (understand) the benefits. |
| iv. She would have become vegetarian        | III d) she would have gone (go) to the mountain.      |

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd).

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them. wouldn't 3rd
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia. had 2nd
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus. ✓ 1st
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good. ✓ 1st

0'875

4'62 ✓

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional. 1

- Many countries will be in danger if the sea level continues to rise. (be, continue)
- If we use even more renewable energy, we will help the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps melt, sea levels will rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it rains more, rivers and lakes will disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional. 1

- If I were / was you, I won't / wouldn't waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will / would there be / was less pollution?
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I will / would donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs: 1

- People wouldn't get so ill if they had (have) clean water.
- If we don't protect (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems will grow (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there would be (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional. 0'75

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| i. If he hadn't used all that electricity,  | a) if he had known (know) there was meat in it. |
| ii. He wouldn't have ordered that dish      | b) he would have (have) fewer problems now.     |
| iii. If she had heard the weather forecast, | c) if she understood (understand) the benefits. |
| iv. She would have become vegetarian        | d) she wouldn't have gone (go) to the mountain. |

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd).

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them. 3rd ✓✓
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia. wouldn't 2nd ✓✓
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus. 1st ✓✓
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good. 1st ✓X

0'875

4'25 ✓

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional. 1

- Many countries will be in danger if the sea level continues to rise. (be, continue)
- If we use even more renewable energy, we will help the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps melt, sea levels will rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it rains more, rivers and lakes will disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional. 1

- If I were / was you, I won't / wouldn't waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will / would there be / was less pollution?
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I will / would donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs:

- People wouldn't get so ill if they had (have) clean water.
- If we don't protect (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems will grow (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there would be (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional. 1

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| i. If he hadn't used all that electricity,  | a) if he had known (know) there was meat in it.        |
| ii. He wouldn't have ordered that dish      | b) he wouldn't have ordered (have) fewer problems now. |
| iii. If she had heard the weather forecast, | c) if she had understood (understand) the benefits.    |
| iv. She would have become vegetarian        | d) she wouldn't have gone (go) to the mountain.        |

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd). 0'25

- Many animal species wouldn't have become extinct if people had protected them. 3 ✓✓
- If I had 10.000€, I would travel to Australia. 2 ✓✓
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus. 1 ✓ X
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good. 1 ✓ X

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional. 0'875

- Many countries will be in danger if the sea level continues to rise. (be, continue)
- If we use even more renewable energy, we will be the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps melts, sea levels will rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it rains more, rivers and lakes will disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional. 1

- If I were / was you, I won't / wouldn't waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will / would there be / was less pollution?
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I will / would donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs: 0'75

- People wouldn't get so ill if they had (have) clean water.
- If we protect (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems will grow (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there would be (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional. 0'625

- If he hadn't used all that electricity, a) if he had known (know) there was meat in it.
- He wouldn't have ordered that dish b) he wouldn't have (have) fewer problems now.
- If she had heard the weather forecast, c) if she had understood (understand) the benefits.
- She would have become vegetarian d) she would go (go) to the mountain.

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd). 0'875

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them. 3rd ✓✓
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia. 2nd ✓✓
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus. 1st ✓✓
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good. 1st ✓

4'87$ ✓

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional. 1

- Many countries will be in danger if the sea level continues to rise. (be, continue)
- If we use even more renewable energy, we will help the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps melt, sea levels will rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it rains more, rivers and lakes will disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional. 1

- If I were / was you, I won't / wouldn't waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will / would there be / was less pollution?
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I will / would donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs: 1

- People wouldn't get so ill if they had (have) clean water.
- If we don't protect (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems will grow (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there would be (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional. 1

- If he hadn't used all that electricity, → a) if he had known (know) there was meat in it.
- He wouldn't have ordered that dish → b) he would have had (have) fewer problems now.
- If she had heard the weather forecast, → c) if she had understood (understand) the benefits.
- She would have become vegetarian → d) she wouldn't have gone (go) to the mountain.

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd). 1

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them. 3rd ✓✓
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia. 2nd ✓✓ wouldn't
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus. 1st ✓✓ had
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good. 1st ✓ X

0'87$

3'87 ✓

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional. 1

- Many countries will be in danger if the sea level continues to rise. (be, continue)
- If we use even more renewable energy, we will help the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps melt, sea levels will raise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it rains more, rivers and lakes will disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional. 0'875

- If I were / was you, I won't / wouldn't waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will / would there be / was less pollution?
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I will / would donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs: 0'75

- People wouldn't get so ill if they had (have) clean water.
- If we won't protect (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems will grow (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there would be (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional. 0'875

- If he hadn't used all that electricity, 2 a) if he had known (know) there was meat in it.
- He wouldn't have ordered that dish 4 b) he would have had (have) fewer problems now.
- If she had heard the weather forecast, 4 c) if she had understood (understand) the benefits.
- She would have become vegetarian 3 d) she would have gone (go) to the mountain.

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd). 0'375

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them. 2nd X X
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia. 3rd X ✓
- had Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus. 1st ✓ X
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good. 2nd ✓ X

2'5 ✓

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional. 0'25

- Many countries would be in danger if the sea level continue to rise. (be, continue)
- If we use even more renewable energy, we would help the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps melt, sea levels would rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it rain more, rivers and lakes would disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional. 0'825

- If I were / was you, I won't / wouldn't waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will / would there be / was less pollution?
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I will / would donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs: 0'25

- People wouldn't get so ill if they haven't (have) clean water.
- If we protect (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems will grow (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there will be (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional. 0'5

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| i. If he hadn't used all that electricity,  | a) if he knew (know) there was meat in it.      |
| ii. He wouldn't have ordered that dish      | b) he has (have) fewer problems now.            |
| iii. If she had heard the weather forecast, | c) if she understand (understand) the benefits. |
| iv. She would have become vegetarian        | d) she goes (go) to the mountain.               |

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd). 0'625

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them. wouldn't 3rd
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia. 1st X X
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus. 1st ✓ ✓
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good. 1st ✓ X

2'25

Prueba grupo de control - 4ºA

Second → If I + ~~present~~ → I would + ...
Past Simple
First → If I + present simple → I will ...

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional. 1

- Many countries will be in danger if the sea level continues to rise. (be, continue)
- If we use even more renewable energy, we will help the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps melt, sea levels will rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it rains more, rivers and lakes will disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional. 1

- If I were you, I won't wouldn't waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will / would there be / was less pollution?
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I will / would donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs: 0'5

- People wouldn't get so ill if they had (have) clean water.
- If we protect (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems will grow (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there wouldn't be (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional. 0'125

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| i. If he hadn't used all that electricity,  | a) if he had known (know) there was meat in it. |
| ii. He wouldn't have ordered that dish      | b) he would have (have) fewer problems now.     |
| iii. If she had heard the weather forecast, | c) if she had (understand) the benefits.        |
| iv. She would have become vegetarian        | d) she would go (go) to the mountain.           |

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd). 0'125

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them. would have
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia. will
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus.
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good.

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional.

0'625

- Many countries will be in danger if the sea level will to rise. (be, continue)
- If we will use even more renewable energy, we could help the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps melt, sea levels will rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it will more, rivers and lakes will disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional.

0'5

- If I were / was you, I won't / wouldn't waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will / would there be / was less pollution?
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I will / would donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs:

0'5

- People wouldn't get so ill if they have (have) clean water.
- If we wouldn't protect (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems would grow (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there would be (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional.

0'5

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| i. If he hadn't used all that electricity,  | a) if he knew (know) there was meat in it.      |
| ii. He wouldn't have ordered that dish,     | b) he would have (have) fewer problems now.     |
| iii. If she had heard the weather forecast, | c) if she understood (understand) the benefits. |
| iv. She would have become vegetarian,       | d) she couldn't go (go) to the mountain.        |

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd).

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them.
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia.
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus.
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good.

3rd ✓ X 0'375

2nd ✓ X 0'375

2nd X 1st

1st ✓ X

would

1'628

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional. 0'25

- Many countries be in danger if the sea level continue to rise. (be, continue)
- If we use even more renewable energy, we will help the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps melt, sea levels will rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it rains more, rivers and lakes will disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional.

- If I were / was you, I won't / wouldn't waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will / would there be / was less pollution?
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I will / would donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs:

- People wouldn't get so ill if they had (have) clean water.
- If we don't protect (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems grow (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there will be (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional. 0'5

- If he hadn't used all that electricity, a) if he knows (know) there was meat in it.
- He wouldn't have ordered that dish b) he has (have) fewer problems now.
- If she had heard the weather forecast, c) if she understands (understand) the benefits.
- She would have become vegetarian d) she will go (go) to the mountain.

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd). 0'25

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them. 3rd
- If I have 10.000€, I will travel to Australia. 1st
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus. 2nd
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good. 1st

1'25 X

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional. 0'75

- Many countries will be in danger if the sea level continue to rise. (be, continue)
- If we use even more renewable energy, we will help the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps melt, sea levels will rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it rains more, rivers and lakes will disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional. 0'5

- If I were / was you, I won't / wouldn't waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will / would there be / was less pollution?
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I will / would donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs: 0

- People wouldn't get so ill if they have (have) clean water.
- If we protected (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems would grow (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there will be (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional. 0

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| i. If he hadn't used all that electricity,  | a) if he know (know) there was meat in it.      |
| ii. He wouldn't have ordered that dish      | b) he have (have) fewer problems now.           |
| iii. If she had heard the weather forecast, | c) if she understand (understand) the benefits. |
| iv. She would have become vegetarian        | d) she go (go) to the mountain.                 |

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd).

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them. _____
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia. _____
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus. _____
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good. _____

0's X

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional. 0

- Many countries   X   in danger if the sea level won't continue X to rise. (be, continue)
- If we will use X even more renewable energy, we are help X the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps                                 , sea levels                                 . (melt, rise)
- Unless it                                  more, rivers and lakes disappear X. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional. 0's

- If I were / was you, I won't / wouldn't waste that food. ✓
- If people recycled more, will / would there be / was less pollution? X
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I will / would donate part of it to an organization. X
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment. ✓

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs: 0

- People wouldn't get so ill if they were have X (have) clean water.
- If we will protect X (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems would grow X (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there                                  (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional.

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| i. If he hadn't used all that electricity,  | a) if he                                  (know) there was meat in it. |
| ii. He wouldn't have ordered that dish      | b) he                                  (have) fewer problems now.      |
| iii. If she had heard the weather forecast, | c) if she                                  (understand) the benefits.  |
| iv. She would have become vegetarian        | d) she                                  (go) to the mountain.          |

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd).

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them.
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia.
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus.
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good.