

15 2 X

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional. 0'25

- Many countries are in danger if the sea level continued to rise. (be, continue)
- If we used to even more renewable energy, we helped the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps melts, sea levels rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it rains more, rivers and lakes disappeared. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional.

- If I were / was you, I won't / wouldn't waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will / would there be / was less pollution?
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I will / would donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs:

- People wouldn't get so ill if they will / have (have) clean water.
- If we proteted (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems grown (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there will be (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional. 0'5

- If he hadn't used all that electricity, a) if he had knew (know) there was meat in it.
- He wouldn't have ordered that dish b) he had have (have) fewer problems now.
- If she had heard the weather forecast, c) if she had undestund (understand) the benefits.
- She would have become vegetarian d) she had go (go) to the mountain.

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd).

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them.
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia. had
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus. didn't 1st
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good. will be going

Prueba grupo de control -3ºB

1'75 X

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional. 0'5

- Many countries will be in danger if the sea level continues to rise. (be, continue)
- If we use even more renewable energy, we will help the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps will melt, sea levels would rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it will rain more, rivers and lakes gonna disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional. 0'5

- If I were / ~~was~~ you, I won't / ~~wouldn't~~ waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will / ~~would~~ there be / ~~was~~ less pollution?
- If I had / ~~have~~ 1 million euros, I will / ~~would~~ donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be / ~~is~~ a cleaner place if developed countries cared / ~~would care~~ more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs: 0

- People wouldn't get so ill if they _____ (have) clean water.
- If we will protect (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems would grow (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there will be (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional. 0'5

- If he hadn't used all that electricity, a) if he knows (know) there was meat in it.
- He wouldn't have ordered that dish b) he had (have) fewer problems now.
- If she had heard the weather forecast, c) if she would understand (understand) the benefits.
- She would have become vegetarian d) she will go (go) to the mountain.

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd). 0'25

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them. 3rd ✓ X
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia. 1st X X
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus. 2nd X X
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good. 1st ✓ X

Prueba grupo de control -3ºB

1'S X

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional. 0'S

- Many countries will be in danger if the sea level if continue to rise. (be, continue)
- If we use even more renewable energy, we will help the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps have melt, sea levels will rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it will not rain more, rivers and lakes if disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional. 0'875

- If I were / was you, I won't / wouldn't waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will / would there be / was less pollution?
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I will / would donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs: 0

- People wouldn't get so ill if they will clean (have) clean water.
- If we would protected (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems would not growed (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there will be (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional. 0

- | | |
|---|---|
| i. If he hadn't used all that electricity, | a) if he will know (know) there was meat in it. |
| ii. He wouldn't have ordered that dish | b) he would had (have) fewer problems now. |
| iii. If she had heard the weather forecast, | c) if she would understaded (understand) the benefits. |
| iv. She would have become vegetarian | d) she will go (go) to the mountain. |

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd). 0'125

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them. would not
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia. will
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus. would not
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good. X

Prueba grupo de control -3ºB

1'25

X

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional. 0'25

- Many countries are in danger if the sea level continue to rise. (be, continue)
- If we use even more renewable energy, we are helping the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps melt, sea levels rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it rains more, rivers and lakes will disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional. 0'25

- If I were / was you, I won't / wouldn't waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will / would there be / was less pollution?
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I will / would donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs: 0

- People wouldn't get so ill if they have (have) clean water.
- If we have protect (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems were grow (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there were (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional. 0'5

- If he hadn't used all that electricity, a) if he hadn't know (know) there was meat in it.
- He wouldn't have ordered that dish b) he have (have) fewer problems now.
- If she had heard the weather forecast, c) if she have understand (understand) the benefits.
- She would have become vegetarian d) she were go (go) to the mountain.

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd). 0'25

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them. 2nd X X
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia. 2nd X
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus. 1st X
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good. 3rd X X

1'37 1'12

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional.

0'5

- Many countries are in danger if the sea level will continue to rise. (be, continue)
- If we use even more renewable energy, we will help the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps melts, sea levels will rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it rains more, rivers and lakes will disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional.

0'875 0'625

- If I were / was you, I won't wouldn't waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will / would there be was less pollution?
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I will / would donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs:

0

- People wouldn't get so ill if they have would (have) clean water.
- If we protected would (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems grew would (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there were would (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional.

0

- | | |
|---|---|
| i. If he hadn't used all that electricity, | a) if he will know (know) there was meat in it. |
| ii. He wouldn't have ordered that dish | b) he will have (have) fewer problems now. |
| iii. If she had heard the weather forecast, | c) if she will understand (understand) the benefits. |
| iv. She would have become vegetarian | d) she will go (go) to the mountain. |

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd).

0

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them. _____
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia. _____
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus. _____
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good. _____

Prueba grupo de control -3ºB

3'12 ✓

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional. 0'75

- Many countries will be in danger if the sea level continue to rise. (be, continue)
- If we use even more renewable energy, we will help the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps melts, sea levels will rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it rains more, rivers and lakes will disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional. 1

P → AP
P → A will - seguro
past - would for segun
perf - would have.

- If I were / was you, I won't / wouldn't waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will / would there be / was less pollution?
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I will / would donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs: 0'75

- People wouldn't get so ill if they had (have) clean water.
- If we protect (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems will grow (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there would be (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional. 0'5

- If he hadn't used all that electricity, a) if he know (know) there was meat in it.
- He wouldn't have ordered that dish b) he would have had (have) fewer problems now.
- If she had heard the weather forecast, c) if she understood (understand) the benefits.
- She would have become vegetarian d) she would have gone (go) to the mountain.

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd). 0'125

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them. X
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia. had X
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus. will X
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good. are X

2'87

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional.

0'75

- Many countries will be in danger if the sea level continue to rise. (be, continue)
- If we use even more renewable energy, we will help the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps melt, sea levels will rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it rain more, rivers and lakes will disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional.

0'5

- If I were you, I won't waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will there be less pollution?
- If I had 1 million euros, I will donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be a cleaner place if developed countries cared more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs:

0'75

- People wouldn't get so ill if they had clean water.
- If we protect our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems will grow if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there would be less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional.

0'25

- | | |
|---|---|
| i. If he hadn't used all that electricity, | a) if he had known there was meat in it. |
| ii. He wouldn't have ordered that dish | b) he would have had fewer problems now. |
| iii. If she had heard the weather forecast, | c) if she had understood the benefits. |
| iv. She would have become vegetarian. | d) she would have gone to the mountain. |

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd).

1st conditional

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them. have protect XX
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia. had 2nd conditional ✓✓
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus. 1st conditional ✓✓
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good. 1st conditional ✓/X

0'625

Prueba grupo de control -3ºB

3'75

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional. 0'875

- Many countries would be in danger. if the sea level continues to rise. (be, continue)
- If we use even more renewable energy, we would help the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps melt, sea levels would rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it rains more, rivers and lakes would disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional. 1

- If I were / was you, I wouldn't waste that food. → were, wouldn't
- If people recycled more, would there be / was less pollution? → would + be
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I would donate part of it to an organization. → had, would
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment. → would be + cared

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs: 0'75

- People wouldn't get so ill if they had (have) clean water.
- If we protect (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems would grow (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there would be (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional. 0'625

- If he hadn't used all that electricity, a) if he had (know) there was meat in it.
- He wouldn't have ordered that dish b) he would (have) fewer problems now.
- If she had heard the weather forecast, c) if she had (understand) the benefits.
- She would have become vegetarian d) she would go (go) to the mountain.

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd). 0'5

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them. 3rd
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia. 2nd
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus. 1st
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good. 1st

Prueba grupo de control -3ºB

In this test you have five questions with four sections in each. All your results will be anonymous and used in my final dissertation as data to confirm or refute my hypothesis. However, this exam can be used as a review for the end of your course.

1. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the brackets. Use the first conditional. 0'875

- Many countries will be in danger if the sea level continues to rise. (be, continue)
- If we use even more renewable energy, we will help the environment. (use, help)
- If the ice caps melt, sea levels will rise. (melt, rise)
- Unless it rains more, rivers and lakes will disappear. (rain, disappear)

2. Choose the correct words to form the second conditional. 0'875

- If I were / was you, I won't / wouldn't waste that food.
- If people recycled more, will / would there be / was less pollution?
- If I had / have 1 million euros, I will / would donate part of it to an organization.
- The world would be / is a cleaner place if developed countries cared / would care more about the environment.

3. Complete the sentences with the first or second conditional form of these verbs: 1

- People wouldn't get so ill if they had (have) clean water.
- If we don't protect (protect) our environment, global warming will continue.
- Problems will grow (grow) if we don't do something soon.
- If people used public transport more, there would be (be) less pollution.

4. Match the beginnings of the sentences with their endings. Use the third conditional. 0'5

- If he hadn't used all that electricity, a) if he would know (know) there was meat in it.
- He wouldn't have ordered that dish b) he would have (have) fewer problems now.
- If she had heard the weather forecast, c) if she could understand (understand) the benefits.
- She would have become vegetarian d) she would go (go) to the mountain.

5. There may be an error in these sentences. Underline the evidence, correct the sentence, and identify which conditional is being used (1st, 2nd or 3rd). 0'5

- Many animal species won't have become extinct if people had protected them. had 3rd cond. ✓
- If I have 10.000€, I would travel to Australia. had 3rd cond. ✓
- Unless Elena runs, she won't catch the bus. 1st cond. ✓
- They will go to the mountain next weekend, if the weather is good. 1st cond. ✓